What are your obligations?

- You must take reasonable care to give us complete and accurate answers to any questions we ask – whether you're taking out or making changes to your policy.
- You must tell us about any changes to the vehicle(s) insured (or to be insured) that may increase the amount that needs to be insured or change the limits on your schedule.
- You must also tell us about any changes to the people on the policy (including convictions) that may require us to change the terms.
- You must observe and fulfil the terms, provisions, conditions and clauses of this policy – failure to do so could affect your cover.
- You must tell us about any accident, injury, loss or damage as soon as possible – so we can tell you what to do next and help resolve any claim.
- If you need to make a claim, you must give us all the information we need to achieve a settlement or pursue a recovery.

It is your responsibility to

- Take reasonable care to make sure all information provided by you or on your behalf is honest and accurate.
- Tell us if any of your information is wrong or changes (e.g. a change of car, usual garaging or motoring convictions).
- Pay the premium when required.
- Tell us about any incidents connected to this insurance as soon as possible whether or not related to a claim.
- Give us the information and help we need. This includes details of any police charges against you or the person driving your vehicle related to a claim being made.
- Check your policy documentation when you receive it to make sure you have the cover you need and expect.

Your policy may not be valid if we do not have the correct information.

How and when to pay?

You can pay your premium as a one-off payment. Payment can be made by bank transfer, cash or debit/credit card.

When does the cover start and end?

- Cover can start once you have accepted our terms and agreed to pay the premium. It will last for 12 months from your policy start or renewal date, unless it is cancelled by you or us before it ends. (We can accommodate less than a year if necessary).
- You can find your policy start and end date on your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

- To cancel your policy please contact your insurance adviser. You have a statutory right to cancel your policy within 14 days from the day of purchase of the contract or the day on which you receive your policy documentation, whichever is later.
- If you want to cancel, and your insurance cover has not yet started, you'll be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid.
- If your insurance cover has already started and no claim has been made or incident has arisen likely to give rise to a claim, you'll be entitled to a refund of the premium paid, with a deduction for the time for which you've been covered. This is calculated on a pro-rata basis.

Legal Protection and European Breakdown cover (procured by WestMed Insurance Services Limited) is underwritten and administered by ARAG UK. Please refer to ARAG UK terms and conditions available at www.argus.gi for cancellations details.
