GDPR - INFORMATION USES

Information you supply may be used for the purposes of insurance administration by the insurer, its associated companies and agents, by reinsurers and your intermediary. It may be disclosed to regulatory bodies for the purposes of monitoring and/or enforcing the insurer's compliance with any regulatory rules/codes. Your information may also be used for offering renewal, research and statistical purposes and crime prevention. It may be transferred to any country, including countries outside the European Economic Area for any of these purposes and for systems administration. In assessing any claims made, the insurer or its agents may undertake checks against publicly available information (such as electoral roll, county court judgments, bankruptcy orders or repossessions). Information may also be shared with other insurers either directly or via those acting for the insurer (such as loss adjusters or investigators). With limited exceptions, you have the right to access and if necessary rectify information held about you.

VERY IMPORTANT - FRAUDULENT AND EXAGGERATED CLAIMS

Deliberately exaggerated claims could invalidate your policy cover. Insurance fraud is a crime and liable to prosecution. The above answers to our questions will be the basis of consideration of your claim. You must ensure that all information is true, correct and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief, and that all material facts have been disclosed. A material fact is one that is likely to influence us in the assessment or acceptance of this claim, or application of cover under the terms and conditions of your policy. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, you must disclose it. Failure to do this may mean that your policy becomes invalid and a claim payment will not be made.
