This will require us to obtain, use, disclose and otherwise process personal data about you and, if applicable, your organisation, its shareholders, members and/or officers and employees.

For clarity, Data Protection Law contemplates various grounds which may render processing of personal data lawful, including where it is necessary for a contract, mandated by law, if it is in our or your legitimate interest (and does not override your privacy), and/or if you give us your consent. Our Privacy Notice (which can also be accessed at www.argus.gi) or provided to you in hard copy upon request, explains how we process personal data. In providing our services we act as an independent data controller and are, therefore, responsible for complying with Data Protection Law in respect of any personal data we process. You are responsible for complying with Data Protection Law in respect of the personal data you process and, accordingly, where you disclose personal data to us you confirm and warrant that such disclosure is fair and lawful, that where applicable and necessary you have obtained lawful consent from others for you to pass on their personal data to us, to the Argus Group and third-parties to whom we disclose personal data (and for the Argus Group and said third-parties to share the personal data with us), and otherwise it does not contravene Data Protection Law. Nothing within this document relieves you of your own direct responsibilities and liabilities under Data Protection Law. Terms used in this clause bear the same meanings as are ascribed to them in Data Protection Law. This clause does not apply to the extent that we act as a data processor for you, in which case specific data protection instructions are to be signed between us.
